

THREE BOYS HELD AFTER ROBBERY; ONE AS SLAYER

Two Admit Share in Looting
Clothing Store, Police Declare.

Three youths were arrested last night on a burglary charge, and an additional complaint of homicide was lodged against one of them.

Some days ago Joseph Tammany of No. 845 West 49th Street, paid $1 down toward the purchase of an overcoat in a clothing store at No. 653 Eighth Avenue. Last Thursday Tammany was shot in Philip Terrogan's barber shop, at No. 808 West 52d Street, and died Sunday without revealing who shot him.

A week ago Jacob Warshawski's clothing store at No. 782 Tenth Avenue, was robbed of $1,000 worth of men's clothing. Detectives who were investigating the burglary saw three youths dressed in new outfits enter the Eighth Avenue store, where they asked the proprietor to return the $1 deposit to Tammany's family, sorely in need of money.

The detectives questioned the youths about the Warshawski robbery. They gave evasive answers and were taken to the West 47th Street Station. Police say they admitted robbing the store and hiding the loot in a 48th Street garage. They gave their names as William Gallagher, eighteen of Central Park, L. I.; Robert Elder, seventeen, of No. 512 West 38th Street, and Arthur Gaynor, eighteen, of No. 533 West 44th Street.

Questioned about Tammany's death, Gallagher admitted that he was one of a group in the barber shop when the pistol was fired, but said he did not witness the killing. He was taken to the District Attorney's office, where the barber, police say, identified Gallagher as the man responsible for the shooting. Gallagher then was charged with Tammany's death.

UNKNOWN WOMAN HIT BY TRAIN ON BRIDGE OVER BODINE CREEK

Engineer Unable to Stop in Time to Save Victim, Who Turns Back Too Late.

A Staten Island Rapid Transit train from Port Richmond to St. George struck a woman on the bridge over Bodine Creek in West New Brighton at 7:50 o'clock today. She was taken, dying of a fractured skull, to Staten Island Hospital. There was no clue to her identity.

Engineer William Perry said that the woman walked out on the bridge after the train had started across the other end of the structure and that he was unable to stop in time to save her, though she started back almost at once. Conductor Corson told the police he felt the jerk of the engine aimed at the locomotive on the bridge.

The woman was apparently about forty years old, a blonde, had light brown hair and was 5 feet 4 inches high. She was wearing a light blue dress and a white apron and a white apron and a white apron.

14-K Solid Gold WALTHAM

TODAY AND TOMORROW
ONLY

Jeweled
Adjusted
Regulated $14

If you want to find out just exactly how much these watches are worth, just step into any other jewelry store before coming here and ask them their price for a Waltham watch. Jeweled, adjusted and regulated, in a men's full size 14-K solid gold case. Undoubtedly, they will ask you $35.00 and more for this same watch. We are selling to-day and to-morrow only, during this special sale, for only $14.00. Every watch is fully guaranteed in every way. The case is 14-K solid gold thru and thru and stamped subject to Government assay. It is guaranteed for a lifetime, as solid gold does not wear out. The famous Waltham movement is guaranteed as to accuracy, reliability and years of service. We have sold high-grade watches at greatly reduced prices for the past 43 years, but we never sold a greater value than this. Our prices are low, because we buy and sell for spot cash in large quantities on a very small margin of profit. We have only enough for our customers, so we reserve the right to refuse to sell to dealers and no mail, messenger or telephone orders can be filled. Write for big catalog.
